Lisa K. Allen appointed to fill Summit Common Council Ward 2 vacancy

SUMMIT, N.J., February 19, 2021 – At its meeting on Wednesday, February 17, 2021 Summit Common Council voted unanimously to approve the appointment of Lisa K. Allen as Ward 2 Common Councilmember. Mrs. Allen replaces Second Ward representative Stephen Bowman who resigned earlier this month pending an out-of-state move.

Lisa K. Allen Biography

Lisa K. Allen is a Ward 2 Common Councilmember for the City of Summit. She is currently employed as District 21 Legislative Liaison to Assemblywoman Nancy Muñoz. Lisa began her early career at JPMorgan Chase as a Human Resources Business Partner. Since moving to Summit in 2011, Lisa has volunteered on the Franklin Elementary PTO board, as co-leader of Cub Scout Troop 360, on the Board of Trustees for the Summit Parkline Foundation and International Forum of Visual Practitioners Institute, and is the current co-President of the Summit High School PTO. Lisa currently sits on the Board of Trustees for HTTV and has been actively involved in hosting community-based programming since 2014. She is a 2019 graduate of Montclair State University with a Masters of Arts in Public and Organizational Relations.
